Dear Manny:

This letter will confirm our discussion this morning with V. Michael Knight, Deputy Minister of Trade and Industry for Nova Scotia; E. L. Goodfellow, Deputy Minister of Finance and Economics, and Ted Levine, president of your firm.

It will serve also as a letter of agreement respecting the Nova Scotia program as proposed by you in your letter of March 5 to me.

The following are the basic pertinent points respecting the program:

- (1) It will be for the period April 1, 1964, to March 31, 1965, inclusive.
- (2) Development Counsellors will submit a monthly report of activities, together with a monthly billing including fee and expenses.
- (3) The cost of the program will not exceed $20,000 in United States funds and this amount will cover the cost of projects as outlined in the March 5 proposal, except for the cost of the luncheons in New York City and Chicago. (Page 3, Item II, March 5 letter)
- (4) Development Counsellors International will carry out the program during the year April 1, 1964, to March 31, 1965. If there are any changes during the year, they will be to the mutual agreement of the participating parties.
